Our first married Christmas!

Meeting people and making big decisions about our future.

Dear Family and Friends-

2014 changed our lives. We are now the Reiter family and have experienced many milestones. Having finally found a reason to stay in one place, I've now lived in Camarillo longer than any other place since PNG. And Ryan has eaten significantly less pizza as well as travelled more this year than ever before.

We definitely hope that there will be more travel in our future. Since our hearts and minds are now united in the vision for life and ministry in Australia, we plan to begin training and support raising in 2015. We are waiting until we've been married a year before beginning the process.

Ryan and I look forward to sharing with you as we continue to learn about each other, Australia and the journey to get us there.

Wishing you a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year too!
