

Road to Australia

The Final Countdown

August 2016

Greetings Family and Friends!

We have entered the final countdown and will be leaving for Perth at the beginning of the November*. It has been a crazy, wonderful summer. We completed our last two trainings in North Carolina and Belgium. They were spiritually and emotionally challenging but Ryan and I helped each other through them. We are now more prepared for our life and ministry together. Check out ryanwithjoy.com to see more pictures, read stories and watch videos from our USA road trip and European training.

This is now the 3 month mark! We are anticipating our arrival in Perth but there is still a lot of work to be done in order to get us there. Please be praying with us. We need about 76 more monthly supporters and will be continuing to speak and churches, to small groups and to individuals. Any amount makes a difference, please let us know if you'd like to talk to us about joining our support team.

This is not something we can accomplish on our own. Thank you to everyone who is already praying, giving and advocating for us.

With Anticipation-
Ryan and Joy

 If we have our visas and financial support then we can leave the 3rd week of November. This will give us time to transition well before my program begins in February.

Our Support Needs: 100% by November 1st

We can get to Australia with just 76 more monthly supporters!

A big thank you to those who are already giving.

Give to our ministry:
donations.mtw.org

Dinant: Our favorite city in Belgium

Please Pray For...

The Visa Process:

- for us to get our student and spousal visas

Our Support:

-for God to open up hearts to give monthly towards our ministry needs

-for provision through scholarships or other extra giving to provide for the cost of education

Follow us on Instagram: @ipturntable Follow us on Joy's blog: joyellen1.wordpress.com
@joycandee

